BACKGROUND

The League of Wisconsin Municipalities will provide Governance Essentials training and related resources to the Common Council.

The general Training Outline is as follows:

1. Introduction to the League as a Resource
2. Understanding the City Council's Role
3. Best Practices in Governance
4. Awareness of Worst Practices

Importance of Good Governance:

Training on good governance is imperative for organizations due to its multifaceted benefits. By instilling robust governance practices, organizations can ensure long-term sustainability and profitability while fostering a positive culture and reputation. Moreover, good governance contributes to social development and promotes integrity, driving positive business performance. Demonstrating effective management to stakeholders aligns interests and builds trust while improving overall performance, stability, and productivity. Furthermore, good governance mitigates risks, facilitating safer and faster growth. Investing in governance training is crucial for navigating complexities, ensuring ethical conduct, and positioning organizations for enduring success.
